Service Detail:

Explosive demolition (aka Implosion) is sometimes needed to fell a structure where conventional demolition cannot be utilized. It can be the preferred method to safely and efficiently demolish larger structures when a building is surrounded by other buildings or the building is post-tension. O'Rourke Wrecking Company has the unique ability to recommend what the best method of demolition is for your project. O'Rourke has imploded many hi-rise structures in tight downtown locations, stadiums, bridges and smokestacks.
